We received a counter notification (below) in response to a copyright removal request that you submitted. A counter notification is a legal request for YouTube to reinstate a video that was removed due to a copyright removal request.

You have 10 US business days to reply to this counter notification. Your response must include evidence that you've taken legal action against the uploader to keep the content from being reinstated to YouTube. Usually, evidence would include a lawsuit against the uploader, which names the YouTube URL(s) at issue and seeks a court order to restrain the alleged infringement.

Evidence should be submitted by replying directly to this email. Do not send your reply to copyright@youtube.com.

After 10 US business days, if we don't get a response from you, the content at issue may be reinstated to YouTube. You can find more information about the legal action you must take and what evidence is acceptable in our Help Center.

Display name of uploader: Sky News Australia

Sky News Australia (SNA) disputes the copyright removal request from Johnathan Snyder. The video published by SNA, which is the subject of the removal request, comprises a news package produced by Fox News, which was used by SNA under licence. SNA has a licence agreement with Fox News Network LLC that permits SNA to use Fox News packages on SNA's platforms, including where those Fox News packages incorporate third-party content (Fox Licence). SNA considers its use of the content which Mr Snyder claims to own is covered by the Fox Licence and there is no proper basis for Mr Snyder's removal request. Even if the Fox Licence did not cover SNA's use of the content Mr Snyder claims to own (which is denied by SNA), such use would clearly be a fair dealing for the purpose of, or in association with, reporting the news by means of a communication pursuant to section 103B of the Australian Copyright Act 1968 (Cth) (the Act). The SNA video subject to the removal request runs for 3 minutes and 14 seconds. It includes a short clip of 3 seconds taken from a much longer video of almost 3 minutes which Mr Snyder claims to own. SNA considers that clip was integral to the news report on a matter of public interest, being devastating tornadoes across the United States which led to significant damage and deaths. This was a matter widely reported on around the world. SNA seeks the immediate withdrawal of Mr Snyder's copyright removal request and confirmation that no further such requests will be lodged in relation to Fox News content incorporated under licence into videos on the Sky News Australia YouTube page.

I swear, under penalty of perjury, that I have a good faith belief the material was removed due to a mistake or misidentification of the material to be removed or disabled.

I consent to the jurisdiction of the Federal District Court for the district in which my address is located, or if my address is outside of the United States, the judicial district in which YouTube is located, and will accept service of process from the claimant.

Sky News Australia (SNA) disputes the copyright removal request from Global Weather Productions LLC (GWP). The videos published by SNA, which are the subject of the removal request, comprise news packages produced by Fox News, which were used by SNA under licence. SNA has a licence agreement with Fox News Network LLC that permits SNA to use Fox News packages on SNA's platforms, including where those Fox News packages incorporate third-party content (Fox Licence). The first SNA video subject to the removal request runs for 1 minute and 35 seconds. It includes a short clip of 10 seconds taken from a much longer video of over 3 minutes which GWP claims to own. The second SNA video subject to the removal request runs for 1 minute and 53 seconds and includes a short clip of 4 seconds taken from a much longer video of over 10 minutes which GWP claims to own. SNA considers these short clips to have been integral to the news reports on matters of public interest, being the aftermath of severe weather events in the United States which led to significant damage and deaths. These were matters widely reported on around the world. SNA seeks the immediate withdrawal of GWP's copyright removal request and confirmation that no further such requests will be lodged in relation to Fox News content incorporated under licence into videos on the Sky News Australia YouTube page.
